ABOUT CLOVIS ART GUILD

Members of the Clovis Art Guild are artists, would-be artists and persons interested in the arts. Clovis Art Guild is the Oldest Art Association in the Clovis/Fresno Area. It was established in 1957 to provide art-related activities to interested members of the community. The Guild's purpose is to promote fellowship among artists, encourage enjoyment, understanding and appreciation of the arts within the community and to offer, shows, exhibits, programs, demonstrations and workshops to artists and art lovers.

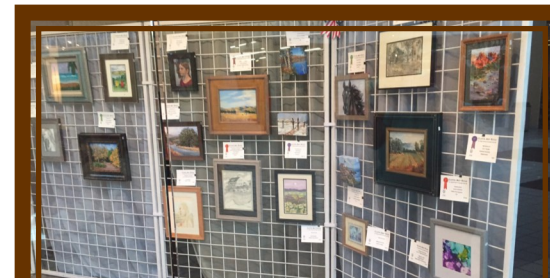

Meetings are held the 2nd Wednesday of each month, February through October at the Veterans' Memorial Building 804 4th St (4th & Veteran's PKW) in Clovis, California. Meetings begin at 7:00 p.m..

The Guild does not hold meetings from November to January.

The program at each meeting consists of a demonstration by a well-known artist, a paint-along or hands-on demo, figure drawing with a live model or an evening of critiques of member's artwork by a well-known artist.

Members are encouraged to bring in their art for Pick of the Month. During the meeting, members and guests vote and one will be chosen as "Pick Of The Month" and awarded a certificate. At the end of the year, all 1st place paintings are voted on for Pick of The Year and a trophy is awarded.

C.A.G. has three juried open shows each year; The Old West and Rodeo show in April in conjunction with the Clovis Rodeo, the Miniature Works Fine Art* show in July and the Open Fine Art Show in October.

A monthly e-mail newsletter is sent out to each member with pertinent information, announcements of next month's program and other matters of interest to artists. Black and white hard copies of the newsletter are sent to members who don't have e-mail or don't wish to receive the e-mail format.

The Miniature Works show will be held at the Fresno Art Hub this year.
