

ART-TIQUE

Art, Truth and Beauty are Necessities--Not Luxuries

You are invited to become one of the 12 local artists, photographers, authors, local art associations or multi-artist galleries to be profiled in our local art events newsletter and on our website. The local art event newsletter goes out on line to over 250 members each month, so this is an opportunity for you to promote yourself as an artist or writer. The profiles will also be featured on the Art-Tique web site. Http://www.art-tique.org

Criteria for artists, photographers and writers: the document should be 200 –300 words, and in word format (do not send pdf documents or other formats that cannot be cut and pasted). You may also submit a jpeg photo of yourself, your work or your gallery. Please be advised that the document may be subject to editing by Art-Tique. It should contain information about you, why you create your art or write, and the galleries or bookstores locations where your art or books can be found, and your website (if available).

Criteria for art associations and galleries: the document should be 200 — 300 words, and in word format (do not send pdf documents or other formats that cannot be cut and pasted). Please be advised that the document may be subject to editing by Art-Tique. It should contain information about your organization and its activities throughout the year, contact information on how to join, and the organization website (if available). You may also submit a jpeg photo of your logo or activities.

To submit your information, send your profile to localartevents@art-tique.org. Subject line should be local art profile. For more information contact Gail at 559-960-2428. Please submit your information before the 25th of the month.
